

California Title Company Announces Anthony Fergus as Title Officer for San Diego & Orange County

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 16th, 2026

California Title Company is pleased to announce the appointment of Anthony Fergus as Title Officer serving San Diego and Orange County.

With more than 17 years of title insurance experience, Anthony has developed extensive knowledge of title operations through roles in word processing, title examining, and mapping. Following the 2009 housing market downturn, he stepped away from the industry for a period of time before returning and joining California Title Company approximately 10 years ago as a Title Assistant.

Most recently, Anthony served as a Junior Title Officer with a competing title company, where he continued to expand his underwriting and title expertise. We are excited to welcome Anthony back to California Title Company as a Title Officer serving both the Orange County and San Diego regions.

"Anthony's commitment to customer service, combined with his deep underwriting knowledge, makes him an invaluable addition to our team," said Bill Thomas, President of California Title Company. "His experience, professionalism, and dedication to our customers make him exceptionally well-suited for this role, and we are excited to see the impact he will make throughout San Diego and Orange County."

Lynda Hill, Vice President and Regional County Manager, PCM, added, "Having known Anthony for several years, I have seen firsthand his growth into a highly knowledgeable and respected title professional. His calm demeanor, sharp intellect, and ability to perform under pressure set him apart. Most importantly, he leads with accountability and compassion, making him someone clients and colleagues can always rely on."

Anthony returns with a wealth of experience, renewed energy, and a positive attitude that will be a tremendous asset to our team and customers. We are thrilled to have him back as part of the California Title family.

"I am grateful for the opportunity to serve as Title Officer for San Diego and Orange County and proud to continue my career with California Title Company," said Fergus. "I look forward to supporting our customers and helping facilitate successful transactions throughout the region."

Outside of work, Fergus enjoys spending time with his wife and two boys, watching movies, exploring new destinations, and discovering great restaurants.
